B. 1887 Professor of History 1908-1928 Director of the University Library 1910 1928 All the village Jews were business people, and made their living by dealing with the peasants of their own village and the surrounding communities. In truth, theirs was a poor existence, but illuminated by a great faith in God, and just such a life as their forebears had lived. They asked no greater favor of the Lord than that their police-sergeant should have a soft heart and a willing palm. And the Lord ever showed himself indeed prodigal with his mercy, and never withheld his bounty from the Jews of B sending them always sergeants with soft hearts. And the Jews gladly crossed his palm and praised and thanked their Father for His favors. So that theirs was a happy existence! They ate bread and groats, sometimes with milk and sometimes with out. That was for week-days. For the Sabbath and the holidays the good Lord betimes sent a fish or...
