A loan bill of the nature suggested was introduced into the Commons by Lord George Hamilton, the new Under Secretary for India. In the course of debates which took place prior to the passing of the bill. Ministers gave a hearty support to the policy pursued by the Viceroy, Lord Northbrook, especially in so far as he had refused to interfere with the ordinary trade exportations of rice from the famine-stricken districts, a determination in which he was opposed by some of his own Indian officials as well as by a portion of the native and home press. - Lord Rossmore of the 1st Life Guards thrown from his horse at the Windsor Steeplechases, receiving injuries from which he died on the 28th. The Queen, who witnessed the accident from her carriage in the King s Road, caused repeated inquiries to be made at the barracks, and on the following day at Her Majesty s special request none of the military races were run. - A high tide in the Thames causes much...
