Sunday-school in the Penitentiary, thus having four services and sermons, and two Sundayschools, on every Sunday. After a pleasant ride we reached Indianapolis, in the early afternoon, and were greeted by the earnest and warm-hearted Rector, and soon made at home, in a household of refined and kind-hearted hospitality. The many debts we are accumulating in this way, in all parts of the Church, we never can repay, but know that they are cheerfully and kindly bestowed on us for our work s sake. On Tuesday evening, after evening prayer, we heard an able and ingenious sermon on the Trinity, from the Rev. Mr. Hudson, of Delphi. On Wednesday morning, June 2J, the Convention of the Diocese of Indiana was opened in the Hall of the House of Representatives, now temporarily used by the parish of Christ Church, while their new church is...
