

Reviewing Care Management for Older People

By Judith Phillips, Bridget Penhale

Jessica Kingsley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Reviewing Care Management for Older People, Judith Phillips, Bridget Penhale, 'The book explores central issues such as power, group goals, and the effects of the environment. It uses as its reference base both the published literature and examples from case eight studies of groups run by people from different professional backgrounds. The discussion of the power relationship between different members of the group is particularly welcome: user empowerment has become a neglected area of concern in books on groupwork. For those new to the field, this is well worth a read.' - Mental Health Today 'The book includes some insightful material on the need for greater flexibility in service provision. The book is valuable for pointing out how much more research and development is still required.' - Age and Ageing 'This book should be of considerable interest to social and health practitioners and policy makers.' - Ageing and Society 'The key question this text addresses is the appropriateness of community care for elderly people in this country in the 1990s and beyond. This is a book which provides a wealth of material drawn from analysis of research and practice. It seeks not primarily to...
