CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 30 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. Hell No! How the Concept of Eternal Torment Isn't Supported by Scripture or Reason Ray Divine uses wit, reason, and even The Bible to disprove the foul and heinous notion of Hell as it's been widely misconstrued throughout the centuries. Excerpts Although Hell doesn't make sense for a God of mercy, where Hell comes in handy is when you want to control a bunch of people. Let's say, for instance, that you have an empire that rules the known world. But then, like the world-ruling empires before yours, yours starts falling apart. But you've had so much fun ruling the known world that you're not ready to retire. You want your reign to keep pouring down. So as your political power fails, you find another way to rule. What better way to rule is there than controlling the eternal destiny of others? If someone knows how to make sure you wind up in a special, happy place where the party never ends and helps you avoid the only other option, which would be, the horrid, unhappy place where...
