

Crossed Bones

By Haines, Carolyn

Delacorte Press, 2003. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Sarah Booth Delaney is no ordinary P.I. As Sunflower County's resident Southern-belle-gone-awry, she struggles to hold on to her family's plantation and put up with the ghost of her great-grandmother's nanny who wants her safely married off and pregnant with an heir for Dahlia House. Not one to wait around for a white knight, Sarah Booth takes on the kind of cases no one else will touch. Like trying to exonerate a man accused of murdering the town's most popular musician. The two men met in prison: Ivory Keys, a gifted black blues pianist, and Scott Hampton, a white rich boy turned racist. Somewhere between the two men, a spark was lit. And by the time he came out of the joint, Scott Hampton had not only renounced his racist ways, he had learned to play a blues guitar that made grown women go weak in the knees. So why did Scott plunge a steel shank into his mentor's chest? Ivory's widow doesn't think he did, and she's paid Sarah Booth to prove it. No easy tak, especially since the delicate racial harmony of...
