Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Round the Mulberry Bush When I was a little girl, my father built a playhouse for my two sisters and me. It was very much like the one your daddy is building for you, said Grandmother Myers to Jean, who held her right hand, and to smaller Ann, who held her left hand. Tell us about it, Ann cried. Tell us a story, grandmother, please. This evening, right after dinner, you shall have the story, promised grandmother. But now we must see how the work is getting along on your playhouse since we were there yesterday. The three walked down the short driveway past the barn and through the apple orchard until they reached the fence. There in the far corner of the orchard, under an old tree, stood the playhouse. It s almost finished, isn t it? asked Jean, running all around the house to see it from every side. My, my, exclaimed grandmother, smiling at her two little granddaughters, what good times you will have here! Two days later daddy told mother the...
