Excerpt: . . . within the limits of the twopenny post. Here the letter being Hilton put into the receiving house about noon of the 1st of March, we Fairclough know that it must have reached its destination the same evening, and the defendant had information from the holder of the bill of its dishonour, the day after it became due, which is all he could require. Verdict for the plaintiff HAERIS v. TIPPETT. isn. (2 Camp. 637--639.) Mareh II. Any quotion may be put to a witness in cross-examination, the Lent Atiizr. answer to which may have a tendency to discredit him; but if such a question be collateral to the matter in issue, the answer which the witness gives must be taken as conclusive, and other witnesses cannot bo called to contradict him. This was an action for not accounting for a promissory note given to the defendant to be discounted on behalf of the plaintiff. A witness for the defendant was asked in cross-examination, whether he had not attempted to dissuade a witness examined for the plaintiff, from attending the trial. He swore positively that he had not. Dauncey then proposed to call back the other to contradict him. (lawrence, J. : That cannot be done. You must take his answer.) Dauncey contended, that for the purpose of discrediting the fins witness, it was competent to shew, that he had sworn falsely in this instance, and actually had attempted to dissuade the other...
