In the 187th paragraph of our letter of the 23d October, 1783, by the Nurbudda, we informed you of a proposal made to us by Mr. Francis Gladwin, for the publication of a complete translation from the Persian language, of a book entitled the Ayeen Akbery; and we then acquainted you, that we consented to subscribe for 150 sets of this work, on account of the Company; but some objections arising afterwards against the payment of so large a sum from our treasury at that time, Mr. Gladwin voluntarily waved his claim to the subscription money, until your pleasure should be known. Mr. Gladwin has lately addressed a letter to us, recapitulating the circumstances which attended his first proposal, setting forth that he is far advanced in this laborious and expensive undertaking, the first and second volumes of the work being already published, and some part of the third; and requesting that, in consideration of the expence and trouble he has been subjected to, we would repeat our recommendation of the undertaking, and intercede with your honourable court for your acquiescence in our promised subscription. Sensible as we are of the merit of Mr. Gladwin's labours, the encouragement that is due to every undertaking which has for its end the promotion and extension of eastern literature, as well in regard to the use its advancement may be of to the persons...
