Excerpt: .enthusiasm to the large number of young men of the church who were on the roster of his regiment. On July 4th, 1862, at the opening of the war, a Ladies Aid Society was formed to furnish relief to sick and wounded soldiers. The officers were: Mrs. Mary B. Hort, President; Mrs. J. P. Cramer, Vice-President; Mrs. L. C. Simon, Secretary; Mrs. Geo. J. Hamilton, Treasurer. It accomplished a vast amount of good, and was only dissolved with the return of peace. The Banner of the Cross and the flag of our Union have always floated from the same staff in the Old Brick. On the death of President Lincoln the church was draped in mourning and a portrait of the President suspended over the pulpit platform, with the words, Our Chief has fallen, inscribed beneath it. A preamble and resolutions, submitted by M....
