

Domestic Uncertainties

By Leah Umansky

Blazevox Books, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 208 x 206 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Poetry. *“The language slips, shifts, recalibrates and the world, shaken, is quietly remade, again and again before our eyes in this lovely, sorrowing and finally transformative book. Leah Umansky is to be congratulated for her sensitive, nuanced, consoling and deeply honest sojourn on the page.”*Carole Maso *“In the same way that every text is a marriage of words one to another, every marriage is a collision of worlds with each other. Sometimes this makes for a beautiful new composition, and sometimes it shatters into sharp jagged pieces. In these poems, Leah Umansky addresses the latter with ferocity and wit and emotional candor, making compositions out of the pieces of a love both strange and altered. These unlove letters go in search of a wild new bravery, renewing our vows to romance and commitment, while wondering aloud if romance and commitment are even still possible/desirable.”*Matt Hart “Leah Umansky’s first collection, DOMESTIC UNCERTAINTIES, is at once delightful and disturbing, illusive and elusive. Her literary and often witty poems are like reflections in a shattered glass that mirror the fractures and disappointments in...
